BEST WISHES FOR 2013 TO ALL MEMBERS.

We hope everyone had a good Christmas. Those members who braved the icy pavements to come to the December 'Seasonal Celebration' meeting had an enjoyable afternoon. Many thanks to the 'Pocket Panto' group; to 'Gert & Daisy' and to Hazel Senior for arranging the pianist and projectionist and for leading the carol singing. Thanks also to Margaret and Peter for the punch. Perhaps we can coax a few different people to entertain us next year! Groups which had a break for Christmas are restarting this month with the exception of Mah Jongg, which has decided to finish due to lack of regular attendees. The French Conversation group would welcome some new faces as their numbers have decreased. Little interest has been shown so far in an Italian group. Anyone who has an idea for a new group, even a short term one, please let the Secretary know, so details can be included in the next newsletter.

Gilbert & Sullivan.

Following Bernard Lockett's recent talk, the possibility of starting a Gilbert & Sullivan Appreciation Group was suggested. Alan Massey has a lot of their recordings and, if there is enough interest, he is willing to host a group at his house. Could anyone who is interested in forming such a group please contact Alan on 01377 252467.

Walking Group.

The planning meeting is being held on 8th January - 10.00 for 10.30a.m. in the Community Centre. Coffee/biscuits will be served and there will be general walking chit chat. A BIG thank you to all who have led walks. If you are you are new to the group and would like to lead a walk you'll be most welcome.

Rummy/Canasta.

Due to fluctuating attendance it has been decided that future meetings will be held in members' houses. Anyone who wishes to attend should telephone Molly Steer on 257987.

Watercolour & Pastel Group.

This group is full at present and has opened a waiting list. Anyone who would like to join the group will need to add their names to the list by contacting either Jane Brigham or Robert Kelly.

Maj Jongg. Due to falling attendance this group has finished.
